4. Administration Reports

Principal Report– Mr. Meengs:

- Currently doing WIDA testing for all of our non-native English speakers. This takes about 2 weeks and is used to determine appropriate classes for the students.
- 7th annual Macomb County Diversity Summit on February 15 from 9:00-1:00. Each high school can send up to 10 students. Students engage with other students across the county with conversation on diversity.

- Counselors are going to be in classrooms to begin scheduling presentations for next school year. Scheduling cards needed to be completed.
- There will most likely be a virtual option again next year.
- Senior Jahidur Chowdhury is a Questbridge finalist.
- Senior Elizabeth Yacks earned a scholarship from the Daughters of American Revolution.
- We had numerous seniors earn scholarships at the Thespian Festival back in December and WCSPA as a whole performed great.
- February 18th we will recognize our honor roll students. Qualifying students must have received at least two consecutive semesters of a 3.0 GPA or above.
- Early release on Tuesday February 8th. Dismissal at 1:15PM.
- Friday February 18th is a half day (Hours 4-6). Dismissal at 10:25AM.
- Winter Break: February 21-25. School resumes on February 28th.
- Parent Teacher Conferences are March 17th, 2-8PM. Most likely virtual, but I have not heard officially from the district.
